

avoimet puutarhat

A hand holding a pink rose against a green background. The hand is positioned in the upper right quadrant, with the fingers gently gripping the stem of the rose. The rose is in full bloom, showing vibrant pink petals. The background is a solid, bright green color. In the foreground, there are several green leaves and other pink roses, some in focus and some blurred, creating a sense of depth. The overall composition is clean and aesthetically pleasing, typical of a gardening or horticulture-related poster.
